ANNEKE ROUX obtained her diploma in Hospitality & Catering Services in Stellenbosch. She worked in the Hospitality Industry for three years and then decided to pursue a career in Recruitment for the Hospitality and Travel Industries. Unfortunately the branch she worked for had to close down due to recession and they were all retrenched.

She then established her own Recruitment Company, where she worked as a generalist recruiter, for all industries. During that time she did freelance bookkeeping and realized that is the industry she would like to further herself in. She took on a job working as HR Manager (with recruitment background) and Financial Assistant. In the beginning of 2013 she decided to pursue a career as full time Bookkeeper & Administrator, and joined Nuplan Africa.
